

Building Trades
Employers' Association
The Alliance of Union Contractors

BTEA HOSTS ANNUAL SAFETY CONFERENCE

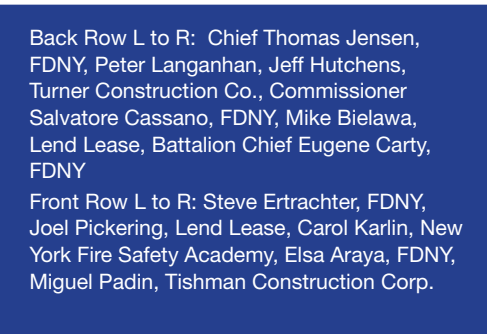

The BTEA held its Annual Safety Conference on November 22, 2011 with more than 300 contractor, labor and public officials in attendance. The keynote address was delivered by Caswell Holloway, New York City Deputy Mayor for Operations, and opening remarks on “Worker, Public and Fire Safety” were delivered by Robert Kulick, Regional Administrator for OSHA, Robert LiMandri, Commissioner of the New York State Department of Buildings and Salvatore Cassano, Commissioner of the New York City Fire Department. Seminar sessions covered topics such as Criminal Liability in Construction Safety and FDNY CDA Inspections and FDNY Special Operations and Emergencies.

Lou Coletti, BTEA President & CEO with Robert Kulick, Regional Administrator, OSHA, Robert LiMandri, Commissioner, New York City Department of Buildings and Salvatore Cassano, Commissioner, New York City Fire Department,

Caswell Holloway, New York City Deputy Mayor for Operations

Back Row L to R: Chief Thomas Jensen, FDNY, Peter Langanhan, Jeff Hutchens, Turner Construction Co., Commissioner Salvatore Cassano, FDNY, Mike Bielawa, Lend Lease, Battalion Chief Eugene Carty, FDNY

Front Row L to R: Steve Ertrachter, FDNY, Joel Pickering, Lend Lease, Carol Karlin, New York Fire Safety Academy, Elsa Araya, FDNY, Miguel Padin, Tishman Construction Corp.

Back Row L to R: Jeff Hutchens, Turner Construction Co., Ken Durr, Durr Mechanical Construction, Richard Mendelson, OSHA, Caswell Holloway NYC Deputy Mayor for Operations, Pat Di Filippo, Turner Construction Co., Lou Coletti, BTEA

Front Row L to R: Kay Gee, OSHA, Robert Kulick, OSHA, Laura Kenny, OSHA

Robert Peckar and Thomas Curran, Peckar & Abramson